Conference on “China’s Role in the International Community in the 21st Century”

15 May 2012

Five keynote speakers of the Conference

Joseph Y.S. Cheng

City University of Hong Kong
Professor of Political Science

Joseph Cheng joined the CityU in July 1992 as Professor of Political Science. He has been the founding editor of the Hong Kong Journal of Social Sciences and The Journal of Comparative Asian Development, as well as the founding President of the Asian Studies Association of Hong Kong. His expertise includes Chinese foreign policy, Hong Kong politics and international politics.

---

Andrew Nathan

Columbia University
Professor of Political Science

His teaching and research interests include Chinese politics and foreign policy, the comparative study of political participation and political culture, and human rights. He is the regular Asia book reviewer for Foreign Affairs magazine and a member of the editorial boards of the Journal of Democracy, The China Quarterly, The Journal of Contemporary China, China Information, and others. He is a member of the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations, the Association for Asian Studies, and the American Political Science Association. He does frequent interviews for the print and electronic media, has advised on several film documentaries on China, and has consulted for business and government.
Yoshifumi Nakai
Gakushuin University, Tokyo
Professor of Contemporary Chinese Politics
Yoshifumi Nakai has been teaching Chinese politics and international relations at the Department of Political Studies at Gakushuin University in Tokyo, Japan since 2003. He has published widely on Chinese-Japanese Relations and on Japan’s views on the rise of China and its implications for the Asia-Pacific region.

---

Michael Yahuda
London School of Economics and Political Science
Professor Emeritus of International Relations
His main fields of interest are China's politics, foreign policy and the international relations of the Asia Pacific. He has published nine books and more than 200 articles and chapters in books. His most famous publication is the Third revised edition of “The International Politics of the Asia Pacific since 1945” (Routledge, 2010). His areas of expertise also include economic interdependencies in Asia, especially with regard to Sino-Japanese relations.

---

Zhang Qingmin
Peking University
Professor, School of International Studies
Professor Zhang Qingmin’s research interests include China's foreign policy, U.S. foreign policy, and U.S.-China-Taiwan relations. He is the author of China’s Foreign Relations (2003); U.S. Arms Sales Policy toward Taiwan: a Decision-Making Perspective (2006), and China’s Diplomacy (2010 and 2011). He has been endeavored in recent years to introduce the theory of foreign policy analysis to China and employ the different models of foreign policy analysis to Chinese foreign policy studies.